The blood of Jesus Prayer

- I have been freed from the power of Satan by the blood of Jesus. I have also been freed from every curse. And I declare God has made an everlasting covenant with me that will not break.
- I believe that God has cleansed me from every sin; sins from the past, sins of the present, and sins of the future by the blood of Jesus. And his blood actively defends me from every accusation from the evil one, nullifying it, and considers me righteous before God.
- The blood of Jesus has made me into a holy vessel set aside to worship the living God. He has done this by completely cleansing my conscience from the acts of death. Therefore, I believe I can enter into the most Holy of Holies to be intimate with God, meeting Him face to face.

- I believe I have the power to defeat Satan and all his powers by the blood of Jesus. Therefore, as a child of God, I declare in faith that I have received every blessing promised by Him. So I believe God's overflowing blessing will help me in everything I do. I believe I will defeat enemies' attacks that comes in every angle and be victorious by the blood of Jesus Christ. That is why I declare in faith that God will fill my storehouse and bless me in everything I do.

- By the blood of Jesus, I believe God will transform my hardened heart to become a tender heart and a compassionate heart. By the power of the blood, I believe my unresponsive heart will be filled with a passion for God, actively obedient to His ways, and become repulsive to sin.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, my heart will be transformed to have a mature faith. I will not discourage others. Instead, I will comfort them and strengthen them. By the power of the blood of Jesus, my heart that was once polluted by sin will be transformed. So that it will no longer cherish evil or selfish motives but will pursue pure and clean heart. By the power of the blood of Jesus, I will not put my heart under the subject of powers and principalities of this world but give complete allegiance to God.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, I believe my heart will: - not be prideful but gentle and humble, not be boastful of selfishness but to have broken and contrite heart, not be anxious or full of worry but to be peaceful and stable heart. The power of the blood will continue to fill me with His spirit and give a new heart so that I will no longer have a deceitful heart but a truthful heart.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, I believe my bones will receive the resurrection power, and that my joints will receive anointing of love, so that my bones will live again and it will be healed, strengthened, and become powerful.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, every schemes of Satan will be made redundant and consumed and there will not be any sorcery or black magic that can harm me. By the power of the blood of Jesus, the Nazirite's hair (like Samson) will grow on my head and I believe it will be hair of love and integrity. By the power of the blood of Jesus, my head will be lifted above and beyond that of all the enemies put together, and that my horn of glory will also be lifted high, wearing the helmet of Jesus, our bridegroom.

- Face reflects pains hidden in our hearts. By the power of blood of Jesus, all the depression and darkness that is marked on my face, and every oppression by the enemy and the past wounds will be completely healed and removed from my face. My face will now reflect our heavenly father, shining with honor and grace. It will be filled with the Holy Spirit, marked with gentleness and peaceful expression, becoming a true testimony of Jesus.

- By the power of blood of Jesus, I will never be put to shame. Therefore, no matter how the enemies try to attack me in every way, intending to cause shame and guilt on me, I know they will never be successful.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, I declare that everything that has been lifted above and beyond the knowledge of God will be demolished and that all my thoughts will be focused on Jesus, submitting to him in every way. By the power of the blood of Jesus, I denounce every thought that represents lack of faith, love, humility, and peace will be done away with. And also thoughts of failure and despair, hatred and enmity, pride and selfishness, anxiousness and fear will be completely demolished and be replaced by genuine faith, love, humility, and peace.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, whatever thoughts that deceived me, everything that was dark and negative, and unrighteous will be demolished and be replaced by whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable – I declare that I will only think of these things.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, I will tame all by vain thoughts. My thoughts will be transformed. And my thoughts will be awakened by God's Spirit. So that I will be clothed by Jesus' mind and the light of the Holy Spirit. By the power of the blood of Jesus, every deception of the devil will be broken. And by the power of the blood of Jesus, my heart that once cherished the worldly values will be replaced by healed sight, not prideful, not judgmental but embraced with love. And also my spiritual eyes will be opened, to be able to see the spiritual reality, and gain the power of obedience to truth.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, every bitter root and poison, anger and rage, deception and lie, words of abuse and worthless utterances will be cut off from my mouth, and that my tongue will be cleansed and made pure from every evil. By the power of the blood of Jesus, I'll put a gag on my mouth and tame my tongue so that I will never utter unclean words. Rather, I will only speak words of encouragement, words to edify people so that whoever hears it will be saturated by grace of God.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus: I will be released from desires of the flesh and from its bondage. All the ambitions and biased thoughts will be removed, fears and anxiety will disappear. Every wounds will be healed, and every feelings and sensations will be sanctified. My heart will not be cruel but be filled with mercy and kindness, humility, patience and gentleness. That I will not be selfish or self-centered but willingly sacrifice myself for others. I will always put other people's needs before me.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus; I will not let my sins to control my life. I will not give into desires of the flesh. I will not giving-in to unrighteousness. But instead, by the resurrection power I will give myself to God. I will dedicate my life to be used by Him as a weapons of righteousness.

- By the power of the blood of Jesus, I have been forgiven, and have been cleansed to become the temple of God. Therefore, any weaknesses, sicknesses, and evil spirits will no longer have any place in me or any powers to influence me. I denounce every evil and unclean thing, binding them in the name of Jesus. I declare in the name of Jesus everything that causes sickness and causes weakness in my body, everything that is cursed and evil will depart from me immediately.

- The place I live, my belongings, my vehicles, and every coming and going will be protected by God. Every conversations and relationships will be anointed by the Holy Spirit. By the power of the blood of Jesus, He will increase my tent, expanding its boundaries, and strengthening its posts in every direction. My tent is the dwelling place of our Lord, and it has been sprinkled by the blood of Jesus so that every corner, every edge is purified and sanctified. By the power of the blood of Jesus, I declare that any weakness, sickness, and any kind of evil spirits will not be able to enter into my tent and that they will have no power over me. In the name of Jesus, I command every unclean and cursed spirits will leave my tent right now.

- The blood of Jesus is always with me so that all my paths will be safe. And as His blood protects me, no locusts will destroy my fruits, and that very vine tree in my field will yield abundant fruits. Because the power of the blood of Jesus protects my livelihood, the enemies will not be able to lay a hand on my belongings. And I declare in faith that everything that I've worked for in my field will be protected. Therefore, I believe the crops will fill my storehouse and there will be overflowing of new wines and oil.

- God is the one who has given life for me to live. Therefore, let Christ and Him alone be honored in my body. Whether I live or die, I'll live for Christ and for him alone.

Wearing God's armor

(Eph 6:10 ~)

- As I pray this very hour, may the Lord pour out the Spirit of prayer so that everything I pray for will not be just a noise that gets nowhere. Please let my prayer remain in the Spirit of God and be led by the Spirit so that it will be in line with the will of God. I know my battle is not against the flesh and blood but against the Powers and Principalities of the world, and the Princes of darkness and the evil spirits above. And I cannot overcome these forces by myself. I can only defeat them when I arm myself with the full body armor of God. So I desire to be fully armed by wearing the full body armor of God.

- I buckle myself with truth. Please don't let me compromise with lies but let me always stand on the truth through the word and the gospel, buckling myself with the truth of Jesus Christ.

- I want to wear the breastplate of righteousness. Just like Jesus who has fulfilled God's righteousness by completely surrendering to God, I too will offer complete obedience to God so that I too can fulfil God's righteousness, and have Him set fire in my heart for the love and passion of God.

- I will wear the shoes prepared by the gospel of peace. God is the lord of my life. So it is up to him to provide what to eat and what to wear. So I will take off my own shoes as a sign of surrender to God. And I will wear the shoes of the gospel of peace, so that I can enjoy true peace which comes from the lord over every circumstances.

- I will wear the shoes prepared by the gospel of peace. God is the lord of my life. So it is up to him to provide what to eat and what to wear. So I will take off my own shoes as a sign of surrender to God. And I will wear the shoes of the gospel of peace, so that I can enjoy true peace which comes from the lord over every circumstances.

- I will lift the shield of faith. The powers and principalities that governs this world, and the evil spirits above are ceaselessly attacking us with the arrows of fire. And we can defend such attacks only through the faith in sovereign God. So I pray that I will continuously trust God's sovereignty and his absolute power in order for me to stand against the enemies' attack.

- I want to wear the helmet of salvation. My thoughts need to be protected O lord. So please guard the doors to my thoughts by the cross of Christ and sprinkle on my doorposts by the blood of my lord so that every worry, anxiety, nervousness, doubt, and unclean thoughts will never be able to enter into my thoughts. Instead my hearts will be filled with thanks giving and praises to our Lord, overflowing with expectations for our God.

- I lift the sword of the Spirit that is the word of God. God has created the world by his words. And Jesus has defeated the Satan's attacks by the word. I believe the words has power to bring the universe to submit to God. By holding on to the sword of the Spirit, by having the word of God imprinted my heart, I will not let my thoughts and my experiences and my emotions to govern my life. Instead I will continue to rely on the word and let the word to bring discernment so that I will not be fooled by the lies of the evil one. As a result, I will be victorious in Spiritual warfare by binding the lies of the enemies with the words of the truth.

- I pray that God will grant His armor to each and every member of my family so that they can all be protected in their thoughts, hearts, emotions and their body from the attacks of the evil one. And also guide them every step of the way, in paths of righteousness and peace.

Repentance prayer

- “Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.”(Isaiah 1:18)
- You have promised that you will forgive us when we come to you in repentance. So in faith, I hold on to your promises. Please pour out the spirit of repentance so that I can truly come before you with the heart of repentance. I repent things of the flesh, mind and thoughts, emotions and will, and every residuals of sin remaining in my soul – that all will be consumed by the fire of the Holy Spirit. And all my sins are washed clean by the precious blood of Jesus, so that the channel of grace will be restored, reaching to the throne of God without any hinderance.
- This is a time to repent personal sins, confessing and asking for forgiveness)

Prayer for the church

- You have set apart LA Sarang church for your glory. Please let this church be filled by your Spirit, be filled by your words, be filled with prayer and praise, so that it will overflow with love and hope during worship. I pray that every worship be filled with God's glory, overflowing with the power of the blood of Jesus and overflowing with the living water of the Holy Spirit.
- May the words preached from the pulpit be wrapped by the stream of light of grace that comes from the throne of God, and that it revives the souls of those who hear the message. And may the fire of the Spirit come upon the alter so that the church be consumed with the love of Christ, and be committed to live by God's will.

- Please pour out the gifts of the Spirit and the fire of the Spirit upon the alter of the LA Sarang church like a giant waterfall. May the pulpit be covered by the holy blood of Jesus, and that the words of life may be boldly preached. Please pour out your Spirit of prayer to every and each one of the church members so that everyone will humbly kneel before your throne, becoming holy intercessors. Lord, please raise 300 committed intercessors who will pray according to your heart.

- Please give the Spirit's fire to LA Sarang church so that everyone will focus on the Lord and stop uniting with the world. Let them carry Christ's heart and his tears, and intercede for this time and age. We believe one prayerful man is stronger than a nation. May the Lord use my weak knees to fervently pray for God to revive this age.

- Please raise more intercessors who has the father's heart and his tears. Those who are fully clothed with the power of the blood of Jesus and the light of the Holy Spirit. So that they can kneel before you, interceding for deteriorating world and for His church.

- Please make LA Sarang church to be the church that really cherishes that one soul, and raise him/her as the special soldier of Christ in the ages to come, through the discipleship training ministry.
- Please let LA Sarang church to serve 4,500 migrant churches and the migrant community as the hands and feet of Jesus. Furthermore, we pray that we'll stand in the gap between the Korean diaspora and the next generation, speeding the 2nd coming of Jesus.
- Please let this church's present be better than her past. And let his church's future be better than her present. Please let this church be a church not controlled by human will but governed by Christ who is the head of the church and be led by the Holy Spirit. So that we will be pure in this world, not allowing even the smallest sin among us, but be obedient to the word, that we will be a church that pleases you. Let the power of the gospel be manifested with greater strength so that more and more people will be added to your kingdom. And that each one will imitate you by carrying the cross daily, and not just through our words but through the apostolic authority and power to change the world.

Prayer for the Senior pastor, pastors and leaders

- We pray for the Senior pastor that he will be given new strength and power daily, and a vision for the new age. Please give him the shepherd's heart and the tears of the Father, so that he will deeply love his people and faithfully and humbly lead them. Let him also be used as an instrument to revive people's soul with the living water freshly drawn daily from the well of the word of God through his intimate time with the Lord.
- Please give our Senior pastor heavenly wisdom and understanding so that he may get to know you more daily. And please guard his heart and mind so that he will have the spiritual discernment, exercising heavenly wisdom, and have surpassing insights. Please refresh and strengthen his inner person by the power of the Holy Spirit, so that his inner person will always be transparent with clear conscience, and that he will be spiritually mature and sensitive to the Spirit and humbly obey as he leads the Lord's church and her members. Please protect his family with your right arm, protecting them from every spiritual attack. Please pour out heavenly comfort and peace to Samonim (pastor's wife) enabling her to serve the ministry of love and compassion. And also bless his three children that they will have spiritual discernment, standing firm in faith and live a pleasing life for God.

- Please pour out the Spirit of Prayer to all the co-workers in ministry, expanding their horizon daily. Please fill them with the spirit of knowledge and wisdom, so that they will hold on to the word of God and His authority whole heartedly. Please let them be used by God to revive the church, and that they will be useful servants in this age. Please pour out the Lord's passion upon their souls, and make their life and character be respected by people. And let them be considered as faithful servants as they serve the church. And as they serve the church let them be faithful and be patient and also be in unity so that they will be fruitful in every areas of ministry. Please let all pastors to be united in one mind and one will, and be wonderful partners in ministry. Let them be such faithful servants, entirely focusing on the Lord's glory and reflect Jesus. Please protect their families, having them always remain in your presence. And please strengthen their wives' inner person, having them always experience heavenly peace and comfort. And we pray also for their children that they will always walk on the path of righteousness. And in this way, their family as a whole to be able to continue to build God's kingdom.

- Please pour out the spirit of prayer to all the Elders so that they will always pray for the church and for all the members. Let them have insightful mind to understand the times we live in. Let them have the holy burden to clarify the essence of the church's mission and bare the responsibilities to stand up and lead God's people with passionate heart. Please let them fully armed with humility and bare the attitude of a servant, and work in unity with the Senior pastor to bare abundant fruit. We pray that they will not be arrogant but to be sensitive to hearing God's voice and be obedient to Him. We pray that they will set such a good example of faith winning respect from people and they will be praised of their service before the Lord.

• We pray for the small group leaders to be filled with the spirit of the word, spirit of the wisdom, and spirit of service so that they will be able to serve their members with the heart of Jesus. Please let them confess that no human wisdom, no human experience, no human ability can ever be able to win souls. Instead they will kneel before the Lord with prayer and petition to be equipped with the power and wisdom of the Spirit, and be armed with the power of the blood of the Jesus as they serve their groups. We pray that they may grow in spirit, character, and personality so that they can embrace the church members- Instead they will kneel before the Lord with prayer and petition to be equipped with the power and wisdom of the Spirit, and be armed with the power of the blood of the Jesus as they serve their groups. We pray that they may grow in spirit, character, and personality so that they can embrace the church members with their heart, raising them as God's soldiers. And also may each small groups enjoy heavenly fellowship and joy, and may they share how their prayers being answered.

- Please bless faithful stewards who serve without name, without glory, and in the places unseen by others. Let them unite with the Senior pastor fulfilling the mission of this age, pleasing the Lord by accomplishing His desires and plans for our church. And let them be faithful and loving toward the church and her members so that they will be good stewards, pleasing to God our father. So that your promises of heavenly blessings and fruitfulness of the land will overflow in their life. We pray also that they will be pleasing to God and that they will be used as the pillars of the church, the body of Christ, and be the channel of blessing towards the world.

Pray for the Next Generation

- God who has given us the children of covenant, we pray that as they live in the midst of sinful age where value system has collapsed, they will continue to confess God as the true creator. Even in the midst of the attack from the evil ones and its temptations, let them confess that Jesus Christ is the only savior.

Their physical parents may struggle to survive as they live here in this land as the migrants. But let their children thrive in you, the true father. Let them be strengthened in their inner person through the power of the holy spirit. Let their faith be deeply rooted in the word of life, and have clean and pure souls that can discern the world. And let them always be clothed by your holiness and live a life that is set apart from this world being your precious children.

- May the Lord personally guide our children in every step they take, protecting them like a pupil of the eyes from every trials and persecutions. And give them success and let them live as witness to you by living such a blessed life here on earth. Please lead their future choices so that they will not waste their precious time. Instead they will spend every minute of their life glorifying God and building God's kingdom, and let them always boast about you.

- Please protect our children like pupil in the eyes so that they will be protected from every evil encounters or from harmful friendships. Instead, let them be filled with blessed encounters through good books, good friends, good teachers, and good spouses. Let all of these encounters be in accordance to your plans and guidance.

- Let our children see the presence of God's glory as we worship the Lord and be consumed by the presence of the Holy Spirit. Give them spiritual discernment and sensitivity to the spirit even from their childhood so that they will always thirst for intimacy with God that they will run toward God's presence with such a thirst for more. Please give them uncompromising faith against the world, and let them grow in maturity, having integrity, character, dreams and visions that surpasses the children of this world. Let them dream big as they dream about how they will build God's kingdom, and prepare themselves faithfully to become useful workers for God.

- Everyone who is involved in Next generation ministry (infants, preschool, elementary, mid/high school, EM, College, Young adults, and Sarang Korean language school) to be filled with the Spirit, word, prayer, and love. And let them perceive in faith, the value of one soul and their potential before God. Especially, the pastors and teachers will set such a good model as they live out Christian world view and Christian understanding of history so that our children may learn how to embrace the world from them and meet Jesus through them.

Ministry Training School

- As today's churches are being ridiculed by the world, it is vitally important to raise thoroughly trained pastors. And we thank you God for our church's commitment in this mission and that we continue to passionately desire this ministry. According to our physical circumstances, this seems to be an impossible task but we believe this vision is in the heart of God and that God will be our helper as we pray for this ministry to be launched. So we pray that God will grant our prayers and bless us with the spiritual authority, leadership, and finance to birth this ministry.

- We want to dedicate $500,000 establishment fund as a seed money to set MTS as an accredited degree course. Let all our church members to bear the holy burden of this ministry that raises pastors and leaders who will be responsible for ministry of life, that they may become sacrifice in prayer. We pray that you will bless our members in their businesses and honor our members to become founders of this ministry as they dedicate their material blessings towards the ministry of training and raising future pastors.

- Please send workers who will take charge of the whole MTS program, those who will serve as administrators. And please also send best mentors and teachers who will train each courses so that we will be able to build a holistic curriculum that covers personal spirituality, spiritual leadership, and everything needed to prepare for the next generation church ministry. Furthermore, please grant us the accommodation to cater the needs for our candidates to stay while they receive the training so that they can entirely devote to the training without having to worry about sorting out these needs.

- Please send us right candidates not only from the mainland America but also from nations abroad. Please send us those who has the calling and the burning passion before God who carries holy burden toward the church. And send us also those who desires to build healthy kingdom of God on earth. We want to see them becoming catalysts for the spiritual awakening and revivals to churches and college campuses all throughout American continent, and throughout all nations.

- Please give the MTS candidates; your heart, your character, authority and wisdom of your word, deep spirituality and prayer, zeal and passion to win souls through evangelism. And most of all let them experience the power of God that makes highway in the wilderness and streams of river in the desert so that they will be well prepared servants who reflect the power of the living God in everything they do.

- Give them (the MTS candidates) the heart of Jesus, so that self-sacrifice and letting down their own rights for the sake of others would be their basic heart attitude. We pray that they will have the shepherd's heart, and the father's tears, to be able to embrace people rather than becoming quick to judge. And please release them from old frame work of thinking shaped from way they were brought up in the past and give them a new paradigm. We desire this paradigm to be the one that embraces open thinking and a teachable heart, not limited by their past experience, so that they will continue to grow and become humble servants who will be ready for God's good work.

- Through MTS, please raise spiritual leaders who will serve campuses starting from UCLA and USC, reaching out to colleges in USA and major campuses all around the world. Please raise pastors and teachers who will take charge of Sunday schools of 4,500 migrant churches.

School Project

- We believe that passing on our faith to the next generation to be the most important responsibility given from God. We thank you God for giving us dreams and visions for school ministry in order to fulfill that calling. We pray that such “children’s project” will be established through powerful anointing of the Holy Spirit. We pray that God will provide necessary spiritual, human and material resources so that your promises and plans will become a reality.

- We believe that raising our children to become exceptional leaders in every aspect of life can only be possible by the Holy Spirit’s help through committed prayer. So we ask that you will raise 300 prayer warriors who will dedicate their prayer life to this purpose so that the School Project will be built on strong spiritual foundations.

- Please provide suitable location and spacious land for the facilities needed for school to raise next generation Kingdom kids. We pray that this will not just become a landmark but a monument of belief, stone alter of faith, and a place of spiritual break through across the nations. Most of all, please gather experienced and skilled, and spiritually mature Principal, curriculum specialist, and teachers who are experts in their fields so that we can run this race as one.
- Please raise business companies and Christians who will commit to this ministry so that material resources would be provided through them. Let them be the channel of blessing in passing on our faith to the next generation and also training future workers.
- We pray that through this school, our children will be equipped with sound understanding of history and armed with clear calling from God. That they will grow in faith, vision and sound mind, passionate heart, expertise skills, to become a well-balanced people who will be used by God to change the history of the nations.

- Through this school ministry, please raise our children to become holy watchmen who will stand in the gap for the nations; that they will become Ezra and Nehemiah of this age who revived their nation. Please make our children to leap forward far beyond just being Korean-Americans but live in this world as Kingdom people, having clear identity and direction so that they can shape and direct the course of this world.

- Through the school ministry we pray that our children will become holy vessels who keeps their body and soul pure and blameless. We pray that they will become warriors who can stand against hundreds and thousands of enemies, overcoming the flow and direction of the secular culture. And that they will become spiritual giants who will reshape politics, economics, popular culture, entertainment, and legal spheres of our society.

- Father, we desire to build boarding schools across the world, in places where it is vitally important for mission strategy. We desire this so that through these schools we will be able to raise faithful leaders of their nations changing the future and direction of their country. And father, please let these schools to be used as educating missionary kids so that the missionaries would be able to focus on their calling.

For the Spiritual awakening and revival of American churches and also the Spiritual recovery of the nation

- We bind the spirit of deceit by the blood of Jesus so that the people of this land will repent, stop living lies and deception, and turn to true and living God.

- Please bind the spirits of homosexuality and spirits of abortion and any other evil spirits that creates confusion and darkness. And cover this land with your blood so that this land will come under your governing presence and be revived as the land of faith.

- Please enlighten the people of this land by your Spirit so that they will return to true and living God. May these people realize the calling and the mission given from God and stand again as the nation of sending missionaries abroad.
- Please revive the churches in this land. Let them first believe the power of your blood and the power that cleanses sin. Let them be revived in the power of purity and holiness. And let them become intercessors, serving as priests for the nation.
- Please let the pastors of this land not fall into the fear of the darkness, falling into spirit of defeat and despair. Rather let them stand in the forefront of the spiritual battle, waking up the church and her people, serving as the intercessors and be armed with the power of the Holy Spirit and the power of the blood of Jesus.
- Please let those who are in the government fear God. Let them be faithful stewards who will govern the nation with God's heart

- Please let those who fear you be elected in the Presidential, Federal, and State elections so that they will serve the nation with fear of God and under God's justice. Please raise your children to exercise leadership in the field of politics, economics, legal, cultural and art - all sphere of society so that every aspect of our society be ruled by your goodness.

For our mother country, and North Korea and world mission

- Please forgive our country as we see divisions in many sphere of our society including government, ideology, social issues, economical polarity, immoral culture and environmental issues. Please give us and clothe us with your holiness so that your word and your justice may shine in the midst of such chaos and darkness. Please have mercy on our country.

- Please let leaders and politicians of our nation to learn to fear you. Let them lead the nation with your wisdom and knowledge. Let them serve the people with fear of God in their hearts.
- Please revive the churches in Korea with purity and holiness so that they will once again take charge of spiritual and moral leadership of the nation. Let them exercise spiritual leadership by aligning their life with their faith, by setting such a good example for others to follow.
- Please the raise the prayer movement among churches, workplace, and schools so that the young people of the nation will become holy sacrifices of mission toward our own people and also for the people of the nations so that they will speed your coming in our time.
- Please let Koreans love 2 million foreign workers who are working in Korea as their neighbors. Let the foreigners encounter Jesus through them so that they can take the gospel back home, to their family and friends, so their nation will also come under God's reign.

- Please protect all the aid workers and their system so that the aids sent to North Korea will not end up just strengthening the military regime. But let these aids ease the pains of the North Koreans from hunger. Please let the flow of supplies not to be stopped even in current tension.
- Please stop human trafficking and human exploits that destroys God's image. Please close down the political concentration camps and release 200,000 prisoners suffering there. And please stop executions of refugees. Please wipe the tears of underground churches of North Korea and protect them like pupils of the eyes and let them persevere until the spiritual jubilee is proclaimed in that land.
- Please unite two Koreas not by ideology or politics but by peaceful reconciliation so that 20 million north Koreans will be released from bondage. Please do not let powerful nations around Korean peninsula continue to interfere our unity. And please unite the nation peacefully without shedding of blood, but let them experience complete recovery only by forgiveness and reconciliation.

- As we look forward to the united Korea, we pray that bible will be given to all 4.8 million families in North Korea and that gospel may be shared to 4.5 million North Korean children. Please strengthen the underground churches and their leaders to persevere the persecution and that they would continue to minister your word to 13 cities and 4,781 villages in North Korea.
- Please bind the spirits of deception especially in the Islam regions of the world and liberate them so that they can proclaim freedom to teach and share the gospel. Please open every opportunity to share the gospel, raising co-workers, and meeting their needs so that through their ministry, there will be revival of worship.
- Please convict my heart of your great commission of standing as your witness to the ends of the earth. So that I can either go as a missionary or support missionaries with prayer and finance. Let me be a faithful missionary in my own place of work.

Personal prayers

- Please pour out your spirit of wisdom and revelation so that I can know you deeper. And please open my spiritual eyes so that I can understand reasons of your calling and the its purpose. Please let me realize how glorious and abundant inheritance you have prepared for me, and how great your power is as your pour it out to those who believe.

- Please strengthen my inner person with the Spirits power so that I will not be shaken by the temptations of this world. And also that my emotions will not be shaken by circumstances and relationships, but consistently facing your throne, experiencing your presence, hearing your voice and give total obedience to you.

- Personal prayers

(my present issues as well as my dreams and hope.)

- Intercede for the lost souls by naming them one by one.

- Lift up our children's specific hopes to God.

- Dedicating our vows, dreams and hopes toward our work and business.

- Personal status to be solved.
And holistic healing of body, mind and emotions.
Redeeming bitterness.

- Small group prayer

(interceding for small group leaders and their members)

God who is pleased with the prayers of his people and answers them with such gladness. We pray that you will hear the One thousand prayer burnt offerings of a humble servant and also that of the people in our church. We ask you that our prayers will not fall short of reaching you but to be delivered to your Holy Throne. And please bless us, in both personal life as well as the church life with the blessing of Purim you've poured out to the people of Israel. You are the author of history and the sovereign ruler of the world. Although we live in the age of unbelief and live among people who continue to ignore you, we pray that we'll be overwhelmed with your presence and overflow with the anticipation of what you will do through our prayers. Let our prayer sessions be the time of experiencing intimacy with you. Please let this world be conquered through your children's prayers. We pray this in the glorious name of the son who is preparing the most wonderful return, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen!

The Kneel Down Prayer for the Kingdom of God

Everything is possible for him who believes.
This kind can come out only by prayer
(Mark 9:23, 29)
